

Art 145 Film Club Sponsorship Request

Art 145 is an art gallery, studio, and classroom where people of all ages and skill levels come to create art, make memories, and cultivate community. One way that we are supporting this mission is by not only offering classes nearly every day, but also longer and more in depth courses. Our first month-long course is a Filmmaking course taught by professional Directing and Screenwriting sister duo Deb Kay and Rita Betti, called Film Club. Film Club is not only going to teach people how to create a film, but we will be having a red carpet event for the premier of the students' short films.

We have been so lucky to be able to offer this course for only $138 per student, but we would love to be able to lower that price even further. With your donation, you may help inspire a young artist to pursue their dream of working in the film industry. Please consider donating to Art 145 using the tier system below; we would love to say thank you by helping out your business in return.
